League of Legends is an online strategy game and it's free. There is a map with 3 lanes; top, mid and bot. Between the lanes there is a jungle. In the jungle there are monsters' camps. We play 5 on 5. In the bot lane there are 2 players: 1 plays the ADC (additional damage carry) and the other one supports him to get stronger. In the mid lane only one assassin, who is based on the ability power of attack damage, plays. In the top lane there's one character (the champion) who is called a tank and he buys hit points, armour and the magic resist. And the 5th one plays in the jungle, kills the monsters and helps the other lanes to get a kill. Every champion character has his own role, for example, there are top lane champions who can't play anything else! Now I will tell you the names of the champions. They are: Annie, Garen, Master Yi, Poopy, Soraka, Sivir, Ashe, Teemo, Veigar, Singed, Zilean, Evelynn, Twisted fate, Kayle, Morgana, Tristana, Siom, Ahali, Katarina Kassadin, Urgot, Xin, Zhao, Twitch, Lee, Shin, Caitlyn, Vayne, Ted, Kha'Zix, Tresh, Draven, Fizz... Every champion has got his own abilities. After every level he can take a skill point at any ability; at the ultimate ability you can take the maximum points at level 6, 11 and 18. My favourite champion is Zed because he is the master of shadows. After every game you get IPs (influence points). With IPs you can buy champions. In the game you need to push lanes to the enemy base. At the end you can buy RPs (riot points) for real money and you can buy skins for them.

And that's the League of Legends!

Marin Mamula, 7th class, Moravice

Football is played from the heart and it is not at all easy.

It is something special, I can't imagine my life without it.

When someone passes the ball in the game everything about you and that ball is important.

Before every game I pray not to endure an injury during the match.

Still, one happened to me when one player made a strong foul on me and I had to go to the hospital.

I underwent a small operation on my wrist.

I play for the football team NK ŽELJEZNIČAR and I'm the second best scorer with the total of twelve goals.

Football is the best sports in the world.

We are the champions, my friend!

I'm writing about the best football player in the world, Lionel Messi. He was born on 24th June 1987 in Rosario, Argentina as Lionel Andres Messi. Leo was poor but he loved football more than himself. He played for the Newell's Old Boys. But he found out that he has a problem with his hight. He was smaller than the kids his age. The football club didn't have enough money for him, so FC Barcelona took him. They paid for some therapies. He was very talented, so at the age of 16 he had a debut for the Barcelona in the first team. Until now, he has won 4 Ballon d'Ors. He is the best goal scorer in the history of FC Barcelona. He's won 3 golden boots and a lot of trophies with the club. He's also playing for the Argentina national team. He's the best scorer in the history of Argentina. He's also helping a lot of people around the world. His life has changed a lot. He's now rich and on the top of the world, but he deserves it!

My favourite sportsman is Michael Schumacher. He was a Formula One driver and for me he is the king of that sports. He is the best Formula One driver of all times. He was the best between 1995 and 2004. From 2000 till 2004 he won all the first titles in a row. He is a winner of the '91 Grand Prix race. I would like to drive a Formula One race like my idol because he was successful in that!

My homeland

Croatia is a beautiful and small country situated in Europe. About 4 000 000 people live there. There's a beautiful sea in Croatia. It is called the Adriatic. There are a lot of tourists in the summer. The capital of Croatia is Zagreb. There are old castles, museums, churches and other buildings in Croatia. In Croatia there are a lot of mountains, lakes, rivers, hills, the Adriatic sea, the coastal area and many more interesting things. Some of the interesting cities in my country are Pula, Zagreb, Osijek, Zadar, etc. The summers in my country are hot and sunny, the winters are cold and snowy, the springs are cool and rainy and the autumns are rainy, cloudy, stormy and foggy.

We visited the Plitvice Lakes on October 7, 2013. We travelled by bus and we started our journey at 7: 45 am. We arrived there at about 10 am. We started walking on the marked track. We arrived to the Big Waterfall and took a picture of the whole class. We learnt many things about the Waterfall. We learnt that it is the biggest waterfall and that it is pouring into to the Kalu erovac Lake which is 14 m deep and 505 m high. We continued walking and watching the other lakes and waterfalls. When we arrived to the biggest lake – the Kozjak Lake - we took a boat to cross it and enjoyed the nature around us. When we got off the boat, it started to rain. The other things we didn't see so well because of the rain and our umbrellas. All in all, we had a great time.

Vrbovsko- the free royal marketplace

In 1785 Vrbovsko became a free royal marketplace. This status was given to Vrbovsko by Joseph II. He had wanted Vrbovsko to be a big town, so he built the Carolina Road. That road was very important. That was the main reason why Vrbovsko became the free royal marketplace. Thanks to his decision Vrbovsko has also gotten a crest, a new school, a government and St. Martin and St. John's fair. The result of getting the road and the status of the town is why Vrbovsko became important centre of Gorski kotar. There was also a lot of people who wanted to live in Vrbovsko. They were from Austria, the Czech Republic, Germany and other countries. King Joseph II was successful in his plan; Vrbovsko became an important marketplace in the 18th century. Thanks to that, there's still the St. Martin's fair.

My ideal place to live

Dear reader, I decided to write about my ideal place to live. At the beginning, I want to say that on this whole world, there is no perfect place, like there is no perfect person.

In my imagination, a perfect place to live would look something like this: the sky would be gorgeous and blue, it would be full of white clouds. Birds would fly for the whole day and they would sing songs. The grass would be green and the ground would be full of different flowers. The sun would shine like never before, and the moonlight would be special. The people would be honest and they would respect each other. There would be no wars or fighting, and there would be a lot of smiling and laughing.

The farmer and the king would have the same property. Like John Lennon said in one of his songs: „You may say I'm a dreamer, but I'm not the only one. I hope some day, you will join us, and the world will live as one.“

I hope that in the world like that one there would be no money. People would respect you, no matter if you are black or white, fat or thin; if you'd be poor, it wouldn't matter. We would be all the same.

I know this isn't possible and this will never happen, but in your imagination life is your creation.

Lucia Lesac, 8th class, Severin na Kupi

My ideal place to live would be some country. That could be Spain because I love that country. The language there is so cool and easy to learn.

In Spain there is my favourite football team. That's FC Barcelona. People in Spain are different than in Croatia. In Spain it isn't easy to get a job. Spain is a beautiful country because there are a lot of perfect beaches. The popular sports there are surfing, swimming and others.

Spain is a beautiful country. Through the season there are a lot of tourists who visit Spain. Spain borders with Portugal, Andorra and France. The capital is Madrid. There are a lot of big cities like Barcelona, Cordoba... Spain is a big peninsula, surrounded by sea. On that peninsula there is Portugal as well, which is a big country, too.

I could describe Spain with just one word.

That word is beautiful! When somebody asks me why I love Spain, I just say that Spain is my ideal place to live.

My name is Dorijan Majeti . I would like to live in New York City. In New York City one can do many things. I wouldn't live in the city centre. I would live in a suburb.

I hate heavy traffic. Nothing would be too far for me.

The Statue of Liberty is very famous. I would like to see it. I would never go to the Empire State Building because I have a heigh fright. In New York City, I think, one can be in every part of the world each day because of the boroughs such as Chinatown, Little Italy... New York's Central park is very famous, too.

When it's winter the lake freezes and you can go ice skating.

Every night rock, pop and jazz groups perform in the Central park.

When the Empire State Building was build it was the highest building in the world. Several years ago a plane crashed into the Twins destroying both skyscrapers. Many people died and many were injured. 9/11 coloured the world black.

I would like to live in New York City but nothing compares to my home. I like my home and my homeland, Croatia.

Dorijan Majeti , 8th grade Moravice

When I close my eyes and try to imagine my ideal place to live, here it is what I see: a big house on the beach. The sun is shining and I'm lying under the palm tree, drinking some juice. My heart is full and I'm enjoying myself. The music is playing somewhere in the house and the beautiful melodies are coming through the window.

I'm watching the sun coming down.

I hear my mum calling me. It's the dinner time.

That is what I imagine as a great place to live in. Hopefully one day I'll end up in a place just like the one in my dream.

Aljoša Pošmuga, 8th class, Moravice

My ideal place to live is Zadar. From Zadar you can go to beaches to swim, go walking in the evenings, listen to the sea organs and a lot more.

My grandfather has got a flat near Zadar, in a place called Diklo. Diklo is about ten minutes away from the centre of Zadar. The flat in Diklo is overlooking the sea and it's about 100 meters away from the beach where my family and I go swimming and sunbathing during the summer. We jump from the docks; once I even hit my head on the rock. My family can't live there at the moment because my dad can't get a job in the road base till the next month because the company for which he is working is not the same like the base company in Zadar. When he transfers to the Zadar base we will be able to move there and my mom can easily get a job at the hairdresser's and I can go to secondary school there as well.

My second choice is Australia because the global crisis is not so serious there and after finishing school I can find a good job with a good payment and I can have a nice life there. There are nice beaches and it is warm during the whole year; in winter it is about 16 degrees, so you don't need to buy so many winter shoes.

I want to live in both of these countries, Croatia and Australia, because they are very beautiful.

My grandfather was in Australia about two years ago and he had a great time there.

One of my life goals is to live in one of these countries.

Matej Mance, 8th grade Moravice

If I could travel anywhere I would go to England. I really want to go to England because it is one of the most beautiful countries in the world, full of beautiful cities, landmarks and many more interesting things.

I want to go to these three cities: Manchester, Liverpool and of course, London. First, I want to travel to Manchester because it is one really beautiful city, not as old as London, but the football history was made there...and it still is. Two famous football clubs come from there - Manchester United and Manchester City. There aren't as many landmarks in Manchester as there are in London,...but I will tell you something about London landmarks later.

Now I will tell you something that is of great significance for Liverpool. Liverpool is the city of music thanks to the legendary Beatles, who were from that very city. Liverpool is bigger than Manchester.

But my biggest dream is London - the most beautiful city in the whole world. It has two parts: Big London and London City. The London history is very old: they once had a queen named Victoria and there's a park in London named after her - Victoria park, but it isn't as famous as Hyde park. They also had a king named Henry VIII who had six wives. Now the queen and her family live in the Buckingham Palace. The royal family consists of: Queen Elizabeth II, Prince William, Dutchess Katherine, baby prince George and many more. The buses there are well known around the world: they are the red double deckers; the taxis there are black while the phone booths are red. I want to visit these landmarks: Big Ben, Tower Bridge, the Tower of London, the Buckingham Palace, and everything else in London as well. I want to go to Madame Tussauds and Natural History Museum, too. There are also Trafalgar Square which is one of the most famous squares in the whole world and the London Eye, too.

I want to travel to England with my best friends Suzana, Milica, Zorana, Vedrana, Andrea, Jelena and Branka.

England is perfect for me and my friends, too because of many celebrities like 1D, Selena Gomez, Burkely Duffield and many more.

England is my dream !

Natalija Dokmanovi , 7th class, Moravice

If I could travel anywhere I would go to London because landmarks there are beautiful.

London is so beautiful. I like the double deckers. I will get on one. I will go with my friends Natalija, Vedrana and Andrea. We'll travel by plane. We'll visit the National History Museum. I will see a dinosaur skeleton and lots of animals there. We'll see Big Ben and Tower Bridge. We'll ride on the London Eye. We'll take photographs near Big Ben and the Buckingham Palace. We'll eat our lunch in Hyde Park and feed the pigeons in Trafalgar Square. We'll go to One Direction concert as well; 1D is one of the most famous groups in the world at the moment. My friends and I'll go to the hotel and we'll stay there for four days. I imagine that the rooms there will be awesome. Our hotel room will be overlooking the Tower of London and it will be beautiful. We will go to eat in the restaurants. We'll definitely have fish and chips.

I love London because of its famous landmarks and phone booths. I want to see the royal family if possible.

London is such a beautiful and never-resting city. Our English teacher says that when one gets bored of London he's probably dead.

MY HOLIDAYS

For my holidays I will stay at home. I hope there will be a lot of snow. I'm planning on going skiing with my friends and we will be skiing all day long. I'm going to spend the holidays with my friends and family. I think these holidays are going to be great if it only snows.

Mateo Aš i , 6th class, Moravice

I would like to go to my grandma's on holidays. There I am going to ski and play with my friends and cousins. The other thing that I want to do is to go to Petehovac in Delnice. It is very nice there and I like it very much because of the nature and skiing.

Milan Ivaniševi , 6th class, Moravice

I am going to go to a ski centre with my aunt Marina in Austria.

We are going to ski in Tirol and sleep in a hotel. After some skiing we are probably going to drink a cup of hot chocolate or tea. My aunt Marina and I are going to enjoy the snowy holidays and we are going to have a fabulous time.

Petra Tadi , 6th grade, Moravice

I'm very happy about the upcoming holidays because I'm going to spend them with my friends and family. Most days I am going to spend with my grandpa and grandma. I have got a lot of friends there so we are going to play some winter games. We made a plan about the New Year celebration: what drinks we are going to have, what cakes we are going to eat and so on...

The rest of the winter holidays I am going to spend with my younger sister. One day I'm going to make a snowman with my dad. When my cousins come, we are going to make snow walls and play war and in the evening we are going to go on the road and do some sledging.

That's how I think I'll spend my winter holidays.

Danijel Murat, 6th class, Moravice

During winter holidays I'm going to Ogulin to my grandmother and grandfather's. In Ogulin my cousins and I are going to make a path and do some skiing . My cousins and I are going to walk to the city centre. I'm going to celebrate New Year in Moravice with my friends and cousins. We're going to have fun with some firecrackers. I'm going to have great winter holidays!

JOBS

My mother's name is Milena. She owns three bars called Capone. The first one is located in Moravice and has been opened for almost 6 years now. She employs two waitresses. They work in the bar for 5 days in a week, 8 hours every day. Two days of the week my mother works instead of them. Another bar is located in a small place called Ogulinski Hreljin and has been opened for 4 years now and she also employs two waitresses there. They work in the same shifts like the waitresses in Moravice. The third bar is in Rijeka and it has been opened for just 7 months. In that bar there are two waitresses and one waiter. The waiter works only when waitresses have their day off. All employees work in 2 shifts and my mother writes schedules for all of them. My mom also controls the drinks and coffee orders, accounts and much more. She works really hard, but sometimes my dad helps her, so she can relax a bit. All bars are working well and I'm really happy and proud because we own a successful business.

Daria Miljenovi , 8th class, Moravice

This is my mom Milena.

My brother's name is Zoran. He is 22 years old and he works on a cruiser in the USA. He works on the ship which can carry up to 3,5 thousand people. He is a waiter. He works from six in the morning until six in the evening every other day. In the morning when he comes to work he has to prepare a buffet table for guests before the breakfast time starts which is at seven o'clock.

The kitchen where the breakfast is prepared is three hundreds meters away from the tables where guests come to eat. He has to be rather quick because the other waiters can steal something from the tables because they were simply closer to them.

After the guests finish eating he can go eat and drink whatever he wants.

But first he has to clean everything.

At one o'clock in the afternoon lunch begins so he has no other choice but to clean tables as soon as possible.

The dinner is at seven o'clock in the evening. There's also live music. After dinner people go to their cabins and prepare to go out clubbing or for walks. My brother cleans the tables after the dinner and then goes to his cabin and sometimes out as well.

This is how one day in my brother's life looks like!

Zorana Rajnovi , 8th class, Moravice

My big brother

My dad works as a police officer. He works for the police station in Vrbovsko. So let's go from the beginning. My dad works in 2 shifts. One from the morning to midday and the other one from night to the late morning. This week he has the night shift. My dad works in the town. He watches for cars that go too fast and then warns the drivers not to do that and collects the fine. He also catches criminals and kids under eighteen who are out when they shouldn't be as well as under the influence of alcohol. The policeman's job is boring, too. You have to sit in an office all day and wait for someone's call. Then you have to write a detailed report about that. My dad also writes the reports. It isn't easy. The other policemen tell him what's on the crime scene but he has to investigate all the details because perhaps there's something other policemen forgot to say or didn't know. So, my dad's job isn't the easiest one but it isn't the hardest one as well but he likes his job and I'm happy that it makes my dad happy.

My mom is a nurse and works in the home for the elderly people. She starts early in the morning by giving her patients breakfast and then she gives them their medicines. If one is hungry but unable to eat by himself or herself, then my mom helps him or her. She doesn't only give them breakfast but also lunch and dinner. When they go to sleep, my mom also rests for a while but during the night she checks on them to be sure everything is OK.

Some days are better than others which depends on the patients' mood.

Randy Smith is a football star. He was killed yesterday in his villa, in his bedroom around 4:30 am from a Magnum.

The butler named John Barnett was somewhere around the house when he heard the first gunshot. He thought that something accured in the library and went to check it out, but everything seemed fine. John Barnett was on his way out when he heard the second gunshot. He barged into Randy Smith's room and saw someone's body. He called the police. The police searched long and hard and came to the conclusion that the murderer was his ex-wife Natalya Lee. The reason for the murder was the fact Randy Smith cheated on her with another woman. Natalya Lee was sentenced to 10 years in prison.

Mr Robinson died a day before yesterday. At about 8:30 pm there was a shot heard from his kitchen. Mr Mike Robinson was a well-known lawyer. At the time of the shot he was in the kitchen. And the gun was a murder weapon. On the gun there were fingerprints belonging to his wife and himself. In his house, at the time of the murder, there were these people: his mom, his wife Danna and his butler Sam. Sam was in the garden at the time of the murder. His mom was making dinner in the kitchen while his wife was watching TV. Around 8 pm Mike Robinson was eating his favourite cake.

What do you think?Who is the murderer?

He was killed by his butler because he was jealous of Mr Robinson's wealth.

Mr Fletcher died yesterday. At 6 am he simply fell down and died. When I arrived, Mr Fletcher was lying on the floor. There were biscuits next to him. I searched the whole house but I didn't find any evidence except one empty bottle of poison in the kitchen. There were two other people in the house: Mr Michael and Mrs Smith, the cook. I sat in the library next to Mr Fletcher's desk where he was killed. Yesterday at half past five Mr Michael was training. Mrs Smith was arguing with Mr Fletcher because he didn't give her a salary. Mr Fletcher said to her: If you don't make my favourite biscuits,I will fire you!. Mrs Smith was very angry. Then Mr Fletcher went to his room and next to him there was his cat. Outside there was a milkman who arrived at quarter to six. At ten to six Mrs Smith was finishing the biscuits in which she put a strange substance. On the bottle there was a skull drawn. At five to six Mrs Smith brought the biscuits to Mr Fletcher. Mr Michael was training at the time. At six o'clock the milkman knocked on the door. Mr Michael opened the door and then Mr Fletcher screamed and fell down. All of them ran to his direction and found him dead.

James was the leader of his gang. One day the gang was planning to rob a bank. James said to the gang members to prepare their guns to attack the bank. They climbed to the roof of the bank and they entered through the ventilation opening. Firstly, they threatened to kill the bank employees if they don't give them money. Other people in the bank were civilians and one of them was threatened by the gun. All civilians turned in their mobile phones so that they couldn't call the police. One person was wounded until the police came. The police threw a smoke bomb into the bank and finally they arrested the criminals and freed the hostages. The wounded woman was taken to the hospital where she fully recovered in just a few days.

One Wednesday at 7 pm someone robbed the Comics Shop but the thief stole only the Batman comics. Mike, who works in that Comic Shop, was just closing the shop when the thief got there, pulled out a gun and yelled: Give me all the Batman comics! Mike got scared and he immediately gave him all the Batman comics that arrived that week. After the thief had gone, Mike called the police. When the police arrived they took fingerprints from the crime scene. But the only fingerprints they could find were Mike's because the thief wore gloves. When the police started asking questions about how the thief looked like, Mike said that the thief was very tall, about 170 cm and had blue eyes and a longish brown hair. Mike remembered that he had rough but at the same time sweet voice. The police got the names of all 170 cm tall geeks among which there was Christian.

Jack Jackson was a singer who was murdered yesterday at nine past seven in the evening. Nobody knows who killed him that night. His sister Belle found him lying in the bathroom dead. She called the police and they took Jack to the hospital morgue to establish the cause of his death. They discovered that his friend Mark had left some fingerprints on Jack's arms. They went to Mark's house and arrested him, but he didn't have a reason to kill Jack. He told the police that Jennifer left Jack and went with another man. Mark also said that Jack was drunk and he took him home that night, so that was the reason why Mark's fingerprints were on Jack's arms. The next day the police found a gun behind the bathroom door and they discovered that Jack killed himself because of his sad love story.

A WINTER DISASTER IN GORSKI KOTAR

Gorski kotar was hit by a natural disaster (extreme ice and snow). This natural disaster began on February 1st, 2014. The icy rain began to fall and the people thought it would stop but it didn't. It was falling and falling... There was a lot of ice on the branches and each minute a branch would break and fall down. There was a problem with the electricity,too. Gorski kotar was out of it. The towns supplied the neighbouring villages with electricity. The worst situation was in abar, Vrata and Fužine. Many houses were out of heating and many people were injured on the ice. Today, the weather is stable and most of the towns and villages got the eletricity back. Hopefully this natural disaster will soon be completely ever.

Dorijan Majeti , 8th class, Moravice

In Gorski kotar winters are terribly dangerous.

Sometimes the snow is up to 1 meter high.

The branches on the road were very dangerous threatening to fall on someone's head.

Snow and ice slowed and then completely ended transmissions of electric power. Those transmissions don't function very well in the winter because trees fall down on the electrical wires which causes problems.

As we as you all know, the Croatian Railways are not developed as they should be, so when the branches fall down on the wires the trains do not run.

Dalibor elam, 8th class, Moravice

It happened this winter...everything was different. It was like spring till then – the tulips were blossoming and it was over 15°C...until that day...

It was Friday and on the forecast it was reported that the sudden fall of temperature is coming and that it's going to snow. The snow really came but there wasn't much of it . It was quite cold but it wasn't a big deal...not really. We're used to a little snow. Then reporter said that it is not recommendable to go out of the house because a freezing rain is going to start and the road conditions are horrible. The freezing rain came and everything was covered with ice. The power went out and people were left in the dark in their homes. Children didn't go to school for three days here in Moravice...which wasn't so bad.

After three days the electricity came back, the ice melted, there was little snow left and everything came back to normal.

It wasn't so bad not to go to school... but to be without a laptop...it was horrible!

Zorana Rajnovi , 8th class, Moravice

This year Gorski kotar was affected by the unexpected natural disaster. Firstly, it was raining which turned into the ice and the roads were frozen. The electric wires were also damaged. Many trees were destroyed under that heavy ice and snow. The road service worked all day and night.

THE HORROR STORIES

Full moon

It was a cold and dark night and there was a strong wind blowing. It was a full moon when a girl named Mary went to her friend Kate's. She went through the woods because it was the shortest way to Kate's house. Mary saw a shadow moving and then started running. She came to Kate's house and knocked on the door. Kate opened the door, Mary entered the house and they went to Kate's room. They talked and Mary said to Kate that on the way to her house she had seen the shadow moving and then her had run away. Together they went into the kitchen for dinner. Mary asked Kate about her mom. Kate replied that her mom was in the living room watching television. When they had dinner, they returned to Kate's room. They put on their pyjamas and went to bed. They heard someone passing through the house. They got out of their beds and Kate took the candles so they can see in the dark. They unlocked the door and went out. Kate didn't see anything, so she turned to ask Mary whether she had seen anything. But Kate did not see Mary and she couldn't find her. She went back to the house and entered the room, but Mary wasn't there either. Kate fell asleep. In the morning when she woke up Mary was still gone. Kate went into the kitchen. Kate's mom wasn't there also. Kate thought that maybe her mom went to work and Mary went to school. Kate got ready and went to school. Mary went to the same class as Kate. Kate came into the room but she did not see Mary. Mary's bench was empty. When a teacher came in, Kate asked her where Mary was and the teacher said that she had been told that Mary is dead and that she was found in the woods. When she heard that Kate rushed to the house and began to look for her mom. But she did not find her. Suddenly she saw her, far from the house, on the ground, bleeding. She called the ambulance and her mom was taken to the hospital. Her mom was saved. She asked her mother what had happened and she said that she had been drugged all the way to the woods and then stabbed. Then Kate said that Mary had disappeared and that she had not been to school all day as well as the fact the teacher said that Mary was found dead in the woods. Since that day Kate never went outside when it was a full moon.

The alley from hell

It happened in September.

Surprisingly, the night was cold, dark and very windy.

I was going from my grandma's alone .

There was one alley where there wasn't any street lights.

It was also the shortest way to my house.

So, I decided to go that way .

When I almost got across... in one old abandoned house the light was suddenly turned on.

I was scared and shocked but my fear culminated when I looked at the window and noticed some black shadows.

I ran as fast as I could.

When I told my parents what had happened nobody believed me.

Since then I never take the shortest way to my house.

Two sisters

It happened one Saturday evening around eight o'clock. I was returning from a training with my best friend Suzana and my dog Berny. Near an old house, along the road, we came across the car and a registration plate was a foreign one; as far as I remember, it was a Finland registration. We stopped to observe the environment because we love a good adventure. Behind the house we heard a scream and a dog barking and we knew that an old lady, the owner of the house, didn't have a dog, so we concluded that it was a car owner's dog. We went to see what was going on but first we checked the house but the door was locked. We also heard some evil and loud laughter coming from the house. Since the windows were old and broken, we entered the house through one of them. Berny also came through the window and I tied him to a door knob. When we came to the middle of the room, suddenly there was a strange light right above us, but only above us while the rest of the room was in the dark as it had been before. I ran to Berny, brought him to the lighted spot and he began sniffing. Then we ran into the other room while we were following him, but suddenly we stooped because we heard a knock on the window. There we saw the old lady (the house owner) tied and pale, almost lifeless, but then again she was almost hundred. We set her free and Suzana took her across the street to her sister's home. Unfortunately for her, her sister was gone and two of them saw a strange thing: the furniture was walking and talking and each piece had vampire teeth. When a chair attacked the old lady, she lost her memory. The furniture was covered with blood and shockingly enough began to fall apart until there were only vampire teeth left on the floor. Suzana took the old lady to the safe place - my uncle's house and left her there while my uncle promised to let us know if anything unusual happens. While I was in the old lady's house strange things happened to me, too. I looked through the window and saw a man with a black hood and a woman who looked as if she had no bones. Suddenly, a black eagle followed by a lot of owls flew above the house with something in his beak. The eagle just threw the body of the old lady's sister on the ground, and the man with the black hood pulled out a gun and aimed towards the body. It startled me because ... Why would he shot her when she was apparently killed by someone else!? I saw a beak mark on her neck and I realised that she had been bitten and then killed by the eagle itself. The man turned the gun and shot skyward as he was calling out for someone or something. It had only passed a couple of seconds from the time of the shot when the rainbow appeared (in the middle of the night) and dispersed throughout the yard. The man took his hood off and I saw his vampire eyes and teeth. When the woman turned toward the house I saw a white creature that resembled not even the worst monster from my nightmares. I heard the crunching sound as well as opening the door and I turned to see whether it was Suzana coming back and I was relieved that she was alive! We started going out of the house but I forgot my mobile phone. While we were looking at the creatures behind the shed, my mobile phone started ringing and the woman picked it up and answered (not knowing that everyone can hear it)... So we heard everything quite clearly: the old lady's memory was back and she had said that one needs to take some water and some paint and throw it on the yard... but by using a lot of cans. The creatures really didn't understand anything...while we did everything like the old lady had said. A water and a paint mixture thrown on the ground began to disappear: the man simply disappeared into the ground while the eagle and the woman were burnt by the sun as the owls turned into the pigeons. Suddenly, someone appeared behind us with my mobile phone and sang a strange melody - it was the old lady's sister! She was alive and well. Together we went to her house and now the furniture was back to normal. We went to my uncle's house where the old lady had been all this time. When she saw her younger sister alive and well, she started crying. Berny was barking happily. Suzana and I, happy and cheerful, went to our friends' house and entertained them by retelling the story. For some people, even today, nothing is clear but it is so even for us who were there. Suzana and I may never find out where that light came from or which one of the creatures knocked on the window or what did the dog sensed that made him bark.

It was one strange Saturday.

Bloody Jack

Once upon a time a little farmer child was working too hard and suddenly collapsed. His family called a doctor. The doctor came and he said that the boy had died...

Recently one family bought the house not knowing that in the past one boy had died there. One night Alex had a nightmare and it was about Jack (the little farmer boy who had died many years ago). Then she woke up and went to the toilet. When she returned to her room she lighted some candles, turned around and repeated words Bloody Jack three times. She began to scream and ran into the bed. However, when she fell on the bed it was full of blood. Bloody Jack came for her!

Danger House

Milica and I were walking in the forest.

We heard a shot. While we were running towards it, we heard someone screaming. We arrived in front of the house and the windows were opened. We knocked on the door. Milica and I entered the house and saw some dead people there and we heard a wicked laughter. When we headed toward the people, we fell through the floor into the basement. We were left hanging on the walls. We heard some other people singing. The sounds were getting closer to us by each moment. When they came closer we found out that they were priests and they were singing.

But at the end...it turned out that there wasn't any crime done...but the local artists had one of their morbid performances.

PLAYS

M-13

Hi, kids! I'm
M-13.

Narrator: One rainy and gloomy night a strange noise like somebody's crying woke up a kid.

Kid: Who is it? Who is crying?

Alien: That's me... (boohoo, boohoo)

Kid: But who are you?

Narrator: When the kid gets out of the bed and looks down, he definitely has something to see! A real alien crying under his bed.

Alien: I am M-13 and I am crying because... (boohoo, boohoo) ... my friends forgot me.

Kid: Where did your friends go and what were you doing in my room?

Alien: Well...we were visiting you for some time now. We are doing an extensive research about you, the Earthlings...but it doesn't matter now because all I want is to go home to Upal!!!

Kid: Upal? Where is that? I have never heard about that planet.

Alien: Even if I told you, you would not know of it... (boohoo, boohoo)

Narrator: Then the little alien starts crying again.

Kid: Don't cry! Your friends will come back for you. But when you are already here, in my room, under my bed, tell me something about your planet. Upal, you said!?

Alien: Yes, Upal...but I can't tell you anything about my planet. You shouldn't have even seen me.

Kid: But now when I have seen you, you could tell me something about Upal.

Narrator: Suddenly the lightning strikes and the lights go off in the whole street. When the lights go back on the alien is gone.

Kid: M-13? Where are you? Don't be afraid! That was only a lightning.

Narrator: But unfortunately the alien was gone. Maybe his friends got back for him.....and maybe the boy had a strange dream...as do we all from time to time.

Valentine's Day

Narrator: In a small town the snow covered everything. A boy didn't take his dog out in the park for days. They watched the snow falling through the window.

Boy: Otto, what do you think how much snow will fall down?

Otto: I don't know. I didn't watch the weather channel.

Narrator: It was only a day before the Valentine's day.

Boy: Otto, look, it started raining, maybe the rain will melt the snow.

Otto: Aaaaaa, I feel lucky..... I have a feeling that I wasn't out for years, not days.

Narrator: It was raining for the whole night and when the day broke there was really something to see! It was no snow, not any more and the sky was sunny and bright. Something strange was in the air as if love melted the snow away.

Boy: Otto, let's go! You don't want to spend another day in the house while outside is so beautiful.

Otto: What do I look like to you?! A mouse?! Of course I am going.

Narrator: And then they went to the park.

Otto: Look, Anna, the girl you like is here...And Lili is here, too. Anna has really got a nice hair...and look at the way she brights everything around her...,and the way she smells...,and her big eyes.....

Boy: OK, OK, I got it. You want us to hang out with them ,but I am very shy.

Otto: OK, boy, I'm taking thing in my paws.

Boy: No, Otto, don't do that!!!

Narrator: Otto ran and picked the prettiest flower in the park and gave it to Anna.

Otto: That boy over there sent you this flower. He is interested in talking to you. Would you like to talk to him ?

Anna: Hahaha. The flower is beautiful. Of course I'll talk to him! My Lili told me about a certain dog. Well I'm guessing you are that dog.

Narrator: And they walked through the park...and they talked a lot....And tomorrow it started snowing again...

Another Christmas fairy tale

Narrator: Once upon a time somewhere in Gorski kotar, in the very heart of the forest, two dwarfs and one elf lived. They lived hidden from the humans. The dwarfs were very naughty so the elf tried to teach them how to behave properly. He told them that there won't be any Christmas presents for them if they don't become better little dwarfs.

Elf: I'll give you three things to do and only if you do them all there will be presents for you from Santa Claus.

Dwarfs: But...we don't know how to be good...

Elf: But...you can do your best!

Elf 1 whispers to Elf 2: Hahaha...we'll simply pretend we are good until Christmas...and after Christmas...same all, same all!

Elf 2: Hahaha...that's right!

Narrator: But the elf knew what they were thinking and told them that's not the way to be good. After a long persuasion the naughty dwarfs decided to be better after all.

Elf: Your first assignment is to clean the snow around the cottage.

The dwarfs are cleaning the snow around the cottage.

Elf: Your second assignment is to bring some wood into the cottage.

The dwarfs are bringing some wood into the cottage. They are breathing heavily.

Elf: And your very last assignment is to decorate the Christmas tree and wait for Santa to arrive.

The dwarfs are decorating their Christmas tree and they are smiling and singing.

Narrator: The dwarfs are really tired and fall fast asleep. And when they wake up...there's really sometimes to see! Their presents are under the Christmas tree!

Dwarfs: It's great to be good!

Elf winks to the audience and the dwarfs together with the elf sing a Christmas song, they take a bow and leave the stage.

Merry Christmas everyone!

Danas primih križa znamen

Danas primih križa znamen
Veselim se znaku tom.
Od sad uvam vjere plamen
Duboko u srcu svom

Zato moja duša mala
Kliče Tebi hvala, hvala
Zato moje srce zna,
Da si njemu radost sva

Krsnom vodom dobro se
Sve si grijeha odagnao
Tebe duša slavit' hoće
Jer si velik dar mi dao

Zato moja duša mala
Kliče Tebi hvala, hvala
Zato moje srce zna
Da si njemu radost sva

Ja u Tvojom stazom poći
Hrabrosti mi zato daj
Pa da i ja mogu doći
U nebeski divni raj

Zato moja duša mala
Kliče Tebi hvala, hvala
Zato moje srce zna
Da si njemu radost sva

Zato moje srce zna da si njemu radost sva.

Nikola Šubić Zrinski was a Croatian banus. He was born in 1508 in Zrin. He lived in the 16th century. He was married to Katarina Frankopan. His most famous son was Juraj Zrinski. In 1566 the Turkish sultan Sulejman decided to attack Vienna. But first he had to conquer Siget. Nikola was the one defending it. Turkish soldiers started to attack Siget on 5th August and Croatian soldiers were defending it really well. The Grand Vizier Sokolović offered Šubić the whole country of Croatia for Siget. But Šubić didn't accept that. Suddenly, on 4th September, the sultan died, but Sokolović didn't want to tell that to the soldiers. On 7th September, Turkish soldiers burnt down Siget. They expected Šubić to surrender, but he didn't. Šubić and his soldiers began to run out of the town and started to fight the Turkish soldiers. But, they didn't stand a chance. All of them died, but they died as heroes, especially Nikola Šubić. They killed him with three arrows and cut his head off. His most famous soldiers who died with him were Vuk Papratović, Nikola Kobanić and Petar Patačić. Nikola's body was buried by Mustafa Vilić. - he was a really good man
- he gave everything for his country

His country and his followers were very thankful for all he had done for them. As a sign of their gratitude they built many monuments in his honour, named streets after him and put his picture on a twenty kuna note.

Richard the Lionheart (1157 – 1199) was one of the most important participants of the Crusade wars. When he came back from the 3rd Crusade war in 1192, the Austrian governor Leopold imprisoned him.

In the end he set him free in 1193. After 1196 he went to war in France and at the same time he tried to get his property back (everything he had lost when he was imprisoned).

His brother and the future successor John tried to steal his crown.

Richard died in 1199 in France while trying to capture Aynora. He didn't have any children, so his successor John became the next king of England.

ANNIVERSARIES

450th anniversary of Shakespeare's birth

William Shakespeare was an English poet, a playwright and an actor. He is regarded to be the greatest writer in the English language and the world's notorious dramatist. He is often called England's national poet and is known as the Bard of Avon.

The Bard was born on 26th April, 1564 and brought up in Stratford-upon-Avon.

At the age of 18, he married Anne Hathaway and they had three children: a daughter Susanna and twins Hamnet and Judith.

Between 1585 and 1592 he began a very successful career in London as an actor, a writer and a part-owner of a playing company the Lord Chamberlain's Men, which became known as the King's Men.

He produced most of his known work between 1589 and 1613.

It is not known when exactly Shakespeare began writing but some records of performances show that several of his plays were staged in London by 1592.

He died on 23rd April, 1616 and was survived by his wife and two daughters.

Some of his well-known pieces are Romeo and Juliet, Hamlet, Othello, King Lear and Much Ado About Nothing. Many of his plays were made into rather popular films.

Matej Mance, 8th class, Moravice

If I were Romeo I wouldn't forget Rosaline so fast. I wouldn't fall in love with Juliet so quickly. But if I were in love with Juliet I'd surely would wait for few days before I would marry her. If I were Romeo I would kill Paris and then I would have enough time to get to know Juliet better. Paris is simply a man in my way. If I were Romeo I would run away with Juliet so that nobody gets killed in our love story. If I were Romeo I would tell everybody that I had married Juliet so that the Montagues and the Capulets could live their lives in peace. If I were Romeo I wouldn't get involved in fights because that's bad for your reputation. And finally if I were Romeo I wouldn't kill myself because of a girl; there are lots of other girls in the world...but..I would definitely like to get a golden statue for people to remember me by.

He lived a messy, bohemian type of life. He was only 39 when he died and it was during one of his many tours. He is the representative of surrealism. Trafalgar Square

Trafalgar Square is a public space and tourist attraction in the central London and it was built around the area formerly known as Charing Cross.

The name commemorates the Battle of Trafalgar, a British naval victory of the Napoleonic Wars over France which took place on 21st October, 1805 near the coast of Cape Trafalgar in Los Canos de Meca, a town in the municipality of Vejer de la Frontera (in the municipality of Barbate since 1940), Cadiz, Spain. The original name should be King William the Fourth's Square, but George Ledwell Taylor suggested the name Trafalgar Square.

Big Ben

This is Big Ben. It's the most famous clock tower in the world.

Info:

Big Ben is the nickname for the great bell of the clock at the north end of the Palace of Westminster in London, and often extended to refer to the clock and the clock tower. The tower is now officially called the Elizabeth Tower, after being renamed in 2012 (from "Clock Tower") to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of Elizabeth II. The tower holds the largest four-faced chiming clock in the world and is the third-tallest free-standing clock tower.

The traditional English breakfast

The full English breakfast is a centuries old Britain's tradition which dates back to the early 1800s. Breakfast may begin with an orange juice, cereals, fruits but the heart of the traditional breakfast are bacon and eggs. They are variously accompanied by sausages, grilled tomatoes, mushrooms, tea, toast and marmalade. A full English breakfast may also consist of a black pudding, baked beans and fried bread.

Here's something about our school...

By our Russian pen pals with their teacher Vladislav

We are going to tell you something about our school, Borskaya Primary School. Our school was built in 1975 and it will celebrate the 40th anniversary in 2015. There are two floors. There are 11 forms in our school, but now there are only 9. There are 92 students.

The classrooms are light and spacious. There are classrooms for different subjects: English, Russian, Maths, Geography, History, Physics, Chemistry and Biology.

There is an ICT classroom, where we study computer science. There's a modern equipment and the Internet access in the ICT room.

The primary school is on the first floor and children aged 7 to 9 go there.

The teachers of our school are very skilled. They try to pass their knowledge and to awake the interest for school subjects. They not only teach but also do a lot of self-study.

Our pupils like doing sports. They play basketball and football as well as ski. They take part in different competitions. They won a basketball competition some days ago. There are a lot of awards at our school.

There is a good tradition at our school to celebrate holidays such as New Year, Victory Day, The Day of Knowledge, The Health Day, Memorial Day and others.

PROJECTS

Little Bookworms

In our school, we read books in English and the name of that project is Little Bookworms. We like English and books in English, too. We read books like Cinderella, Gingerbread man, Little mermaid, Big pancake, etc... It's a lot of fun!

Sara Krizmanić, 5th class, Severin na Kupi

This year our English teacher Davorka Neki started a project of reading books in English. She called it Little Bookworms. Almost all classes are included in the project...even some teachers. Reading books is what we all have in common. Little Bookworms in our schools are pupils from the 2nd class (Rahaela Golik, Sanjin Klai, Morana Konjevi, Katja Livojevi, Maja Miloševi, Barbara Severinski and Vedrana Vu kovi), the 3rd class (David elam, Ema Konjevi, Ema Lešnjakovi and Luka Majeti), the 4th class (Valentina Alin i, Mirjam Golik, Danijela Miloševi, Anja Rajnovi, Roberta Vu ini and Vanja Vu ini), the 5th class (Suzana Petrovi, Lana Uzelac and Vedran Višni), the 6th class (Azra Livojevi, Zoran Mamula, Michael Mla enovi, Igor Polovina, Petra Tadi and Sanja Trbovi), the 7th class (Natalija Dokmanovi, Refik Husi and Milica Miloševi) and the 8th class (Dorijan Majeti and Matej Mance). The little ones fill their reading journals while we from the upper classes do exercises connected to a book we read. In our school library there are more than 100 books in English and most of them belong to our English teacher. We also have our own Little Bookworms library membership cards. We like reading in English – it's a lot of fun! And we like being Little Bookworms!

What really happened to Stonehenge?

By Angry birds

Once upon a time, people in England built a big monument called Stonehenge. It was used for celebrating the first day of summer- the longest day of the year.

But, then, some very, very angry birds came, and they destroyed it.

So today, Stonehenge looks like this.

Pupils from the 1st to the 3rd class from Veliki Jadri and Lukovdol participated in the project called What really happened to Stonehenge?.

With their classmistress Silvana Vlahovi they made their version of Stonehenge with the help of Angry birds. They made it from medicine boxes which they coloured in grey - for the real version of Stonehenge, and for their imaginary version they coloured medicine boxes using different colours. After making the models, with their English teacher Jasmina Krakar, they made the poster which described the chronology of events (in their version) in English followed by photos.

And it all looked like this that day:

Nikola Tesla Primary School Week of English

Moravice

In March this year we marked the week of English. It was a week dedicated to the United Kingdom and interesting facts regarding it. The week was opened by a short introduction given to us by a 5th class pupil Lana Uzelac and a 6th class pupil Sanja Trbovi . It was followed by the UK national anthem God save the Queen after which all the pupils of our school went to their classrooms.

During the whole week teacher Davorka held presentations to all the classes leading them throughout the school which was full of colourful and informative posters regarding the UK geography, famous rulers (the most interesting turned out to be king Henry VIII and his six wives), the royal family with its ruler – Queen Elizabeth II, famous universities (Oxford and Cambridge), the UK capital and its landmarks, TV brands such as Mr Bean and Only Fools and Horses, the government with a special stress on three PMs – Winston Churchill, Tony Blair and current PM David Cameron...and the last poster in line was the one referring to literature which contained the names of two notorious writers – William Shakespeare and Charles Dickens. Around the kitchen door there were mini posters of the dishes typical for the UK while around the library there were mini posters bringing the world of English closer to us and introducing the characters such as Gingerbread Man, Tomlin and many more.

On each floor there were paper models of famous London landmarks such as Tower Bridge, the Tower of London, the Buckingham Palace, Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament, double-deckers, red phone booths, and many more.

The school hall was decorated with the English speaking countries' flags made by two 5th class pupils – Aleksandra Trbovi and Lana Uzelac.

To make the teachers' room laugh...we put a mini poster on the door so all the teachers can say it...The poster said: Google must be a woman because it knows everything!

On Wednesday 5th class pupils Ella Musulin and Vedran Višni danced for us. The dance was, as you may guess, the English waltz and the song they danced to When you believe sang by Mariah Carey and the late Whitney Houston.

During the breaks pupils watched the London photos slideshow (photos were taken by teacher Davorka when she was in London in 2009) and listened to the UK music such as Dubliners, The Rolling Stones, The Beatles, Robbie Williams, Amy Winehouse, Adele, and many more.

Natalija Dokmanovi , 7th class, Moravice

On Thursday we marked the 2014 Project Day and this was our part:

London – the UK capital of culture

Natalija: Hello, everyone! My name is Natalija and we are the English group. In this group there are: Dorijan Majeti , Natalija Dokmanovi , Vedrana Dragovi , Milica Miloševi , Azra Livojevi , Aleksandra Trbovi and Lana Uzelac.

We decided to present one of the most beautiful cities in the world – London and some of its notorious landmarks.

So, let's begin!

Dorijan: This is just a little bit of London. London is the capital of the UK and it is the biggest city there with its 32 boroughs and more than 8 million inhabitants which makes London the most crowded city in the European Union. It's well-known for its World Heritage Sites such as the Buckingham Palace, the Tower of London, Big Ben, Tower Bridge, and so on. The London Underground is the oldest one in the world.

Vedrana: The UK monarch is the Queen. Her name is Elizabeth II and she lives here. This is the Buckingham Palace and the royal family lives there. Once it was called the Buckingham House.

Natalija: As soon as you cross Westminster Bridge, there you will see the Houses of Parliament and Big Ben. The UK Parliament has 2 houses: The House of the Lords and the House of the Commons and the man in charge for the government is the Prime Minister whose name is David Cameron. Next to the Parliament, there's Big Ben - the most famous landmark. It's a big tower clock!

Milica: London has many beautiful bridges but our favourite is this one – Tower Bridge. It's a combination of bascule and suspension bridge that crosses the river Thames and was named after the neighbouring Tower of London.

Aleksandra: London is also known for its black taxis and red phone booths such as this one. And these...well, these are Jaguars! They are fast, attractive and cost a lot of pounds! But I wouldn't mind driving one!

Lana: And if you want to taste the real London, you'll take a double-decker ride! Have you heard of double-deckers?! Well...they are always painted red and they always have 2 decks. If you ever visit London, take a double-decker sightseeing tour...because...the way to see London is from the top of that bus!

Azra: This was London in miniatures. I know they look great but the real landmarks are even more impressive. So, we invite to visit London as soon as you get a chance...and please...don't forget to send us a postcard! And a little souvenir would be nice, too!

Natalija: With the sounds of music, the English group came to the end of the London presentation.

Till next school year...

Goodbye! Cheerio! Slán! Hwyl fawr!

Meine

Hm.....ich erzähle euch....

Vier Tage nach dem Beginn der Winterferien, bin ich nach Rijeka mit dem Zug zu meinem Vater gefahren. Das war am Heilig Abend. Wir haben alle den Tannenbaum geschmückt und später auch Weihnachtsspezialitäten gegessen. Am nächsten Tag habe ich mit meinen Cousins gespielt und wir sind auch spazieren gegangen. Rijeka ist eine sehr schöne Stadt. Dort kann man viele schöne Sachen sehen. Zum Silvester waren wir alle zu Hause. Es war wunderbar ...wir haben getanzt und gesungen. Zwei Tage nach dem Silvesterfeier bin ich wieder nach Hause gefahren zu meiner Mutter. Später habe ich auch meine Großeltern besucht dort habe ich auch zu Mittag gegessen. Nach Gomirje bin ich erst ein Tag vor dem Schulbeginn zurückgekommen.

So habe ich meine Winterferien verbracht!!!
